Teacher Professional Development

January - February 2023

Face-to-Face Workshop - Principles of nZEB: Ventilation

At this workshop we will explore:

- The importance of ventilation in the home.
- Considerations when selecting a ventilation System.
- Building Regulations surrounding Ventilation.
- The nZEB Principles approach to teaching Construction Studies.

These workshops will take place in the National Construction Training Centres of Excellence . These centres are pivotal to the training and education of the construction sector in Ireland in this new era of NZEB.

As part of the workshop, participants will get the chance to see various ventilation systems in action and how the latest NZEB technology can be used to achieve a sustainable and energy-efficient home.
